If you haven't had a chance to see a class preview for Financial Peace University, you have another opportunity TODAY at 11:30am. Perhaps you are thinking about signing up for the class, but you're wondering what you are getting for your investment of $93? For starters, you are able to attend a class each week that consists of a lesson delivered by Dave Ramsey on DVD, followed by a small group discussion with your peers. Additionally, you will receive a membership kit which includes:

- All 13 lessons in an audio CD library.
- Dave Ramsey's personal testimony on CD.
- Three months of zero based monthly budgeting forms on CD.
- A financial snapshot progress form.
- A complete set of financial management forms, including samples.
- All 13 fill-in-the-blank FPU lessons to work through with Dave during the classes.
- Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace Revisited book.
- The envelope system.
- Two debit card holders.
- Access to the Member Resource Center online, where you will find helpful financial tools.
- A graduation certificate upon completion of the class!

Perhaps you are wondering if there is a refund if you do not like the program? The guarantee is simply this: "If you do it, it works! If you don't do it, it won't work!" If you work the program, you won't want your money back. If you don't work the program, you don't get your money back.

The final class preview will be shown on Sunday, August 23rd at 5pm. Pick up a brochure at the Welcome Center to give to family, friends, neighbors and coworkers and invite them to attend the final preview. (The preview may also be viewed on line at www.daveramsey.com/fpu/home/, but registration for the class must occur through the church to get the discounted rate.) Class materials will be ordered based on the registrations received by August 30th. Due to the tremendous outpouring of generosity from several members wishing to offer scholarships, we are pleased to be able to offer memberships to those with a desire to attend the classes despite being unable to pay at this time due to current hardships. Please see Chris and Alisa Freeman (class facilitators) with any questions that you may have.

Proverbs 22:26-27 (The Message)

Don't gamble on the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, hocking your house against a lucky chance. The time will come when you have to pay up; you'll be left with nothing but the shirt on your back.

~A Costly Love Affair~

by Gene Taylor

"For Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present world" (2 Tim. 4:10). In this passage we find the third and final mention of Demas in Scripture. In Colossians 4:14 he is listed as one sending greetings to the church at Colosse. In Philemon 24 he is named as a fellow-worker of Paul. In 2 Timothy 4, though, he is identified as a deserter from the Lord's work because he "loved this present world." We are not told whether his love for the world was centered on any one thing. We are told only that he loved it and what that love for the world caused him to do. Christians are commanded not to love the world (1 John 2:15-17).

We often speak of "costly love affairs" because those affairs cause homes to be broken, children to suffer, reputations to be ruined, wealth to be sacrificed, etc. Yet, none has ever been costlier than the love affairs Demas and others like him have had with the world. Loving the world carries the highest price one can pay for anything: to be without God and without hope (Eph. 2:12). Continued fellowship with God requires walking with Him in His will (1 John 1:5-7). The one who claims to be a Christian but who flirts with the world is only deceiving himself. He must be made to realize the great cost of unfaithfulness -- his soul (Matt. 16:26).

or Michelle Finley. We especially need teachers for the cradle roll and the 2-3 year-olds.

We were able to complete the need of the Elizabeth Children's Home (ECH) shown here with orphanage director,

In addition to hurting himself, Demas did great damage to the cause of Christ. In abandoning it, he deprived it of a devoted worker and robbed it of all the good he might have accomplished had he remained faithful. We can only wonder how many lives he could have helped if he had stayed loyal to the Lord. There is also the matter of his influence. Others, most likely, became disheartened and discouraged by his example. He was probably a discouragement to his family and friends for no one can do as he did without encouraging others to do the same (Prov. 1:10-15). Like every willful sinner, he crucified the Son of God anew and put Him to an open shame (Heb. 6:4-6; 10:29).

Demas robbed the world of the flavor of righteousness imparted unto it by godly living. He snuffed out another desperately needed light in a sinned-darkened world (Phil 2:15). Someone has said, "Every 'Demas' who leaves the truth makes it a little more difficult for some 'Cornelius' to learn the truth or some 'Timothy' to be reared in it." Demas' love affair with this world was certainly costly. Most tragically, if there was no genuine repentance on his part, it cost him his soul (Matt. 16:26). Doing as he did hurts all and profits no one. Do not make the mistake of Demas. Do not love this present world.

Happy Birthday
